

Manatee School For the Arts

Food Services Payment Policy

Charges:

- Limit of $15.00
- Students will not be denied meals based on an outstanding debt
- If student is at $15 limit, a serving of cereal or a sandwich and a carton of milk will be substituted for the meal being served.
- No charging allowed for al a carte items
- Al a carte items cannot be purchased if there is an outstanding balance on meal account

Money can be applied to student lunch accounts in two ways:

- On line at www.payschools.com using debit or credit cards
 - Link for PaySchools is on the school webpage
- Cash or check paid to the cafeteria staff at the registers, no debit or credit cards can be accepted

Notification of overdue accounts:

- When a student's balance is running low, the cafeteria staff will discreetly notify them by allowing the student to look at his/her account on the computer screen
- A statement will be mailed home to parents/guardians
- Calls will be made to parents/guardians

Applications for free/reduced meal services can be filled out at any time during the school year. The applications will be processed within 10 days and parent/guardian will be notified of the outcome by mail or email.

As we continually work to improve the quality of the food while keeping the costs down, it is important that all lunch accounts are kept current.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.
